KAMLABEN WIFE OF RAMSING KUBERSING PARDESI

Versus

STATE OF GUJARAT

Appearance:

1. Special Civil Application No. 5321 of 2002

MR SANJAY D SUTHAR ON BEHALF OF

MR NK MAJMUDAR for Petitioner No. 1

MS NANDINI JOSHI AGP for Respondent No. 1-3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 29/08/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The present petition has been filed by the father of the detenu, who has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by order dated 30/4/2002 passed by the Police Commissioner, Surat City and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he / she cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision in the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. I have heard learned advocate for the petitioner and also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detaining authority has passed the detention order relying upon the five offences registered against the detenu under the Prohibition Act. The last offence is registered before the Chawk Bazar Police Station vide Crime Register No.III-71 of 2002 for the offences punishable under Sections 66(1)(B) and 65(E) and 81 of Bombay Prohibition Act, which has been registered on 28/3/202 and the detaining authority has passed the detention order on 30/4/2002. Thus, there is a delay in passing the detention order. No affidavit explaining the delay has been filed either by the detaining authority or by the State. The learned advocate for the petitioner has relied upon a judgment delivered by this Court reported in 1997(1) G.L.H. page 381 in the case of Elesh Nandubhai Patel Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City and Ors. more particularly at para 21 which reads as under:

> "There appears to be some substance in the contention of the petitioner that these two unregistered cases have been referred only with a view to cover up the gap or to give life to a stale case. This unexplained delay makes a ground of detention not proximate, vitiating the order of detention itself. If I am to buttress my findings, I would say the reference may be made to the decision of the Supreme Court in Anand Prakash V. State of U.P. reported in AIR 1990 SC 516 and Pradeep Nilkanth Vs. S. Ramamurthy reported in 1993(2) Suppl. SCC 61."

4. It appears that the last offence is registered against the detenu on 28/3/2002 and the order of detention has been passed on 30/4/2002 and hence, there is a delay in passing the order of detention. No affidavit has been filed either by the detaining authority or by the State explaining satisfactorily the delay caused in passing the order of detention. Therefore, in view of the above judgment relied upon by the learned advocate for the petitioner, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. Learned advocate for the petitioner does not press any other points.

5. In view of the above, the petition is allowed. The order of detention dated 30/4/2002 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu namely Kamlaben wife of Ramsing Kubersing Pardesi is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs. D.S. Permitted.
